IMC ARBITRATION COMMITTEE'S KNOWLEDGE SERIES WEBINAR

SECOND MASTER CLASS ON EVIDENCE IN ARBITRATIONS – LAW AND PRACTICE WITH SR. ADVOCATE MR. ROHIT A. KAPADIA

Friday, 12th December, 2025

From 5:30 p.m. to 6:30 p.m.

Dear Sir/Madam,

To create awareness on various topics in arbitration law and its practice amongst the public and stakeholders in arbitration (parties, lawyers and arbitrators), IMC's Arbitration Committee organizes 'Knowledge Series Webinars' from time to time. The previous webinar with Senior Advocate Mr. Rohit A. Kapadia was held on Friday 26th September 2025, and this is the next in the 'Evidence in Arbitrations' series.

Evidence serves as the foundation and basis for the parties to prove their claims or defenses, and for an arbitral tribunal to make a fair, reasoned, and well-supported award. Since arbitral tribunals are not bound by the Evidence Act or the Code of Civil Procedure, arbitration offers flexibility. But the evidence presented still determines the case's outcome and must be admissible, relevant, material, trustworthy, and presented such as to allow the tribunal to form a definitive and reasoned decision.

Join us once again for an illuminating conversation with Senior Advocate Mr. Rohit A. Kapadia, who with years of experience, shares his knowledge and practical insights.
