

Kiran Shetty, CEO & Regional Head – Swift

Kiran Shetty, CEO & Regional Head – Swift

Kiran is a distinguished leader with more than two decades of experience at the intersection of banking, financial services, and technology. His career spans pivotal leadership roles at globally recognized Fortune 500 organizations including Bank of America, General Electric & Western Union. Today, he serves as the CEO & Regional Head, India & South Asia at Swift, where he drives strategic initiatives shaping the future of cross-border payments and digital financial ecosystems. In 2016, the Government of India honored Kiran with the prestigious National Award for his exceptional contributions to advancing financial inclusion - an acknowledgment of his deep commitment to broadening access to secure and innovative financial services. Known for his rare blend of domain expertise, strategic foresight, and entrepreneurial acumen, Kiran is widely regarded as an influential industry voice. His perspectives on digitization, financial transformation, and the evolving global payments landscape are sought after at leading forums and policy dialogues. With a proven ability to envision and execute large-scale transformation, Kiran continues to shape industry thinking and inspire organizations to build resilient, technology-driven financial futures.