g) Potential products of import from India (Jan-Apr 2022)

in USD million

S. No	Commodity	Global Import	Import from India	Rationale
1	Passenger motor vehicles	6416	50	With major automakers (Toyota, Ford and Holden) have taken their manufacturing outside of Australia in 2017, the Australian market presents a positive picture for Indian auto and auto component manufacturers.
2	Automotive parts	860	10.6	While the end of local vehicle manufacturing spells a reduction in demand for parts and accessories manufactured in Australia, it creates a platform for major Indian auto component manufacturers to collaborate/ have joint ventures with Australian manufacturing companies to supply the aftermarket with genuine spares.
3	Medicaments	1872	146	The prescription drug sales in Australia is around US$8 billion. However, the generics sector remains small, both in value and volume terms, in comparison with health care systems in countries such as the US. Australia has one of the lowest user rates of generic medicines in the world, at 18 per cent of prescriptions compared to 50 per cent in the US and 70 per cent in Denmark. With the expiry of patents of number of key innovator drugs along with the changes in PBS (Pharmaceutical Benefits Scheme) of the Australian government, there is scope for Indian generic manufacturers to enter the Australian market.
4	Tea	51	6.4	While Tea might not feature among top 10 exports from India to Australia, India is 3rd among tea exporters to Australia. There is great potential for export of Indian Tea and its diversified products to Australia. There is need to promote geographically linked branding among Australians such as Assam Tea, Darjeeling Tea, Nilgiri Tea etc., as most teas are known and marketed by a brand name in Australia.

5	Jewellery	499	47	India's market share in Australian imports for jewellery is approximately 12-15 percent, which has lot of potential to grow particularly in this sector. Most of the jewellery imports into Australia are from Thailand, China and USA. It may also be noted that Australia is also one of the major suppliers of diamonds and gold to India, where it is processed before being exported to various countries.
6	Furniture and parts thereof; bedding, mattresses, mattress supports, cushions and similar stuffed furnishings	1348	5.0	Given the strength of India in this sector, there is potential for more export of Indian home furnishing items into Australia. With the rising labour and shipping costs in China, there have been some shifts in imports from other countries and Indian exporters could take advantage of this change, particularly for furniture, mattresses and cushions.

4. Important India related statements of commercial significance by political leaders, think tanks, chambers, associations etc. / Significant stories/features on India related trade, investment, services and logistic sector, published in foreign journals/dailies, etc.: (Max. 500 words)

- a) Anthony Albanese's visit to the Hindu Council of Australia before the federal election in Australia was seen as significant in drawing votes from Hindus - one of the country's fastest-growing demographics. Hinduism is the third most prominent non-Christian religion in the country (440,300 people), after Islam and Buddhism, according to the 2016 census, the most recent data available. Hinduism increased 60 per cent between 2011 and 2016, making it the second fastest growing religion in Australia after Sikhism, which rose 74 per cent to 126,000 people in 2016.

- b) The Australian financial media reported that India, one of the world’s largest wheat producers, added further uncertainty in the international market after banning most of its wheat exports which was likely to result in a fresh spike in global prices. Commonwealth Bank agri commodities strategist Tobin Gorey commented that will create an initial flurry of trading, but the market will take some time to assess the details. The ‘ban’ does not appear to be comprehensive. Egypt said it will still take delivery of a half million tonnes already agreed with India. And India said it will continue to make grain available to poorer nations.
- c) The Australian financial media reported that, India has joined Australia, the United States and Japan during their QUAD summit to condemn Russia’s invasion of Ukraine as the leaders of the four strategic allies vowed to prevent similar hostile action in Asia in a message clearly directed at China. The four leaders also agreed to provide more help to Pacific Island nations vulnerable to climate change and strengthen collaboration on disaster relief. The meeting committed to invest US$50 billion over five years on infrastructure for developing countries. The Quad leaders also agreed to strengthen cooperation in COVID-19 vaccine distribution, infrastructure, climate change, cybersecurity, illegal fishing, and natural disasters.

- 11) The incoming Australian Treasurer Jim Chalmers said almost out of control inflation was the major challenge for the economy, and record budget deficits would constrain the Labor government's spending capacity. The incoming government will inherit a strong economy being buffeted by global forces beyond its control, annual inflation set to hit almost 6 per cent, more than a decade of deficits, and gross debt set to exceed $1 trillion.
- 12) Australian Federal Finance Department figures show the economic deficit has fallen to $46 billion in the first 10 months of the financial year. The improvement since the March budget is attributed to low unemployment of 3.9 per cent helped reduce total government spending by $6.5 billion. Government revenue was $3.7 billion higher than had been forecast, because of higher company and personal taxes. The underlying cash balance for the 2021-22 financial year to April 30 was a deficit of $45.9 billion, against the March 29 budget forecast deficit of $56 billion, according to the figures. The economy is forecast to have expanded by 0.6 per cent in March, and annual growth slowed to 2.9 per cent, down from 4.2 per cent in the December quarter.

- 20) A fourfold increase in gas prices has inflicted huge losses on small to medium sized operations like Causmag International, a Riverina based manufacturer in NSW and may force the company to temporarily close its doors within months if there is no relief. The company which uses gas to make magnesium products, has already wound back operations over the past 12 months, cutting workers at two sites near Young from 38 to 29. Aditya Jhunjhunwala, director of Causmag International, said his operation, which buys gas priced against the spot market, was incurring huge losses. Prices are also being drawn higher by strong international prices for LNG, which soared last September and again after the Russian invasion of Ukraine in February. Mr Jhunjhunwala said international competition meant Causmag could not just pass on the higher prices.

- 21) International Energy Agency said, the global growth in renewable energy generation from solar, wind and other sources increased to a record level in 2021 despite supply bottlenecks, soaring prices for commodities and construction delays. The IEA said a record 295 gigawatts of new renewable power capacity was added in 2021 which will be surpassed, with the IEA expecting 320 gigawatts to be added in 2022. The IEA further added that solar will account for 60 per cent of the new renewable energy generation capacity added this year, followed by wind and hydropower. Europe saw the biggest rate of growth in renewables, the IEA said, and this is expected to continue rising as it moves quickly to reduce its dependency on Russian gas supplies. The IEA said renewables' growth so far this year is much faster than initially expected, driven by support from governments in China, the European Union and Latin America, which is compensating for slower than anticipated growth in the United States.
- 22) Unions in Australia are pushing back against business demands for higher immigration to relieve talent shortages by insisting the minimum income for temporary skilled visa holders should be lifted to well above $90,000. As immigration looms as a key topic of Labor's employment summit, unions also want stronger requirements to source local workers before foreigners. Australian Chamber of Commerce and Industry chief executive Andrew McKellar warned that any excessive increase to the income threshold risks inadvertently excluding occupations that might otherwise be eligible for skilled migration.
