	23.09.2025		The Eurasian Economic Commission's Board established the 0% rate of import customs duty on industrial fatty alcohols (3823 70 000 0 CN FEA of the EAEU) up to and including October 31, 2028. The current rate amounts to 5%. These goods are primary raw materials for extracting surfactants used in manufacturing liquid washing and cleaning products, as well as cosmetics, in metal industry, textile, leather, paint, paper, food and healthcare industries and agriculture. Nowadays, the Eurasian Economic Union does not manufacture industrial fatty alcohols; for this reason the existing needs are met through import deliveries. The Decision shall come into effect after 30 calendar days have elapsed from the date of its official publication.
	30.09.2025		The Eurasian Economic Commission's Council decided to zero out import customs duty rates on motor gasolines, jet fuel, diesel fuel, marine fuel and other gas oils up to and including June 30, 2026. The Decision shall come into effect after 10 calendar days have elapsed from the date of its official publication.

	23.09.2025	The Eurasian Economic Commission's Board decided to introduce shipment monitoring in accordance with the Agreement on Using Navigation Seals for Monitoring Shipments in the Eurasian Economic Union. The decision shall come into effect on February 1, 2026. The Agreement envisages a gradual introduction of the monitoring mechanism taking into account the categories of goods and the modes of transport used. Its implementation is divided into three stages, with a total duration of 1.5 years. At the first stage, since February 11, 2026, navigation seals will be used for: – sanctioned goods and some types of excisable goods including alcohol and tobacco transported by road and (or) by rail under the customs transit or export procedures, as well as transported between the Member States in mutual trade; – some categories of goods such as clothes, shoes, devices transported by road under the customs transit procedure; – nicotine-containing products and primary nicotine materials classified under 2404, 2939 79 000 0 and 2939 80 000 0 of the Single Commodity Nomenclature of Foreign Economic Activity of the Eurasian Economic Union (CN FEA of the EAEU) transported by road and exported from the EAEU customs territory under the customs export procedure. Since February 11, 2026, Decision No. 63 of the Commission's Board dated June 8, 2021 stipulating the customs transit procedure applied to alcohol and tobacco products being EAEU goods placed under the customs export procedure for the purposes of their transportation across the Union's customs territory to the customs authority at the point of departure will no longer be valid. Shipments of the said goods will be monitored in accordance with the Agreement.

1.	02.09.2025	The Eurasian Economic Commission's Board approved an amended Program for Developing Interstate Standards to the Customs Union's Technical Regulation "On Safety of Milk and Dairy Products" (TR CU 033/2013). The new version of the Program envisages the development (revision) of 73 new interstate standards by the end of 2029. Along with that, Russia is responsible for preparing 60 draft standards, Kazakhstan

		will prepare nine draft standards, and Armenia will prepare two draft standards. Besides, Kazakhstan and Kyrgyzstan will jointly prepare two draft interstate standards for national dairy products. A number of standards are developed for the first time, including those for milk protein concentrates, dry whey protein hydrolysates for baby food, raw and drinking sheep milk, dairy products for preschool and school-age children, etc. The EEC Board's decision shall come into effect after 30 calendar days have elapsed from the date of its official publication.
	16.09.2025	The Eurasian Economic Commission's Council amended the Rules for Marketing Authorization and Expert Examination of Medicines for Human Use. The amendments allow extending the provisions of the procedure for bringing marketing authorization applications in compliance with the EAEU requirements as optimized by the EEC Council's Decision No. 34 dated May 22, 2025 to those manufacturers that applied before December 31, 2025 for the variation procedure in terms of adding recognizing States that were not specified previously. This ensures a prolonged validity of national marketing authorizations in these countries for the period of performing the procedures but not later than December 31, 2027.
