

Consulate of the Arab Republic of Egypt
in Mumbai

Ref. No.: EGY/CG/34/2026

18 March 2026

The Consulate of the Arab Republic of Egypt in Mumbai presents its compliments and has the honor to attach hereto the first edition of Egypt's Economic Brief for 2026, which covers the period from January to March.

The Brief includes the latest news about different sectors in Egypt, such as economy and finance, energy, trade and investment, as well as the Suez Canal Economic Zone (SCZone).

It is worth mentioning that despite the ongoing developments in the Middle East, Egypt remains stable for trade and investment, especially in light of its strategic location and vital role as a transit hub between Europe, Africa and Asia. Additionally, Egypt remains safe for tourism, particularly as the status of the travel advisory regarding visiting the country has not been changed.

The Consulate will be delighted to receive any inquiry from your side, as well as to meet with you to address the potential investment opportunities in Egypt as well as bilateral trade cooperation. kindly do not hesitate to approach the Consulate via its emails: Consulate.mumbai@mfa.gov.eg or egycon.mumbai@gmail.com

The Consulate of the Arab Republic of Egypt in Mumbai avails itself of this opportunity to renew the assurances of its utmost consideration.
